

Pelham Public Library

HorrorFest

Disturbing Dark Fiction Designed To Awaken Your Own Hidden Fears

Gord Rollo is the author of a number of horror books and short stories, including Jigsaw Man, Crimson, Lost In Translation and Strange Magic to be released in December. Gord is a member of The Horror Writer's Association and has been highly praised by reviewers. Gord lives in Fonthill.

Richard Gavin is the author of numerous critically-acclaimed horror books, including Charnel Wine, Omens and Primeval Wood. His latest collection, The Darkly Splendid Realm will be released in November. Richard lives in Ontario, Canada, where he is seldom seen during daylight hours.

Peter Straub has described Rio Youers as " ...one of the most vital, most exciting young talents to come along this decade." Rio is the author of the vampire novel, Everdead, which was long-listed for the prestigious British Fantasy Award, and two novellas, Mama Fish and Old Man Scratch. His new novel, End Times, will be released in 2010.

Wednesday, October 28, 2009

7:00 p.m.

$2.50 Please register ahead. 892-6443.